History

1900

The foundation of the company at the turn of the century by Mr. Wilhelm Rosebrock. It started as a freight transportation establishment situated at the Bremen freight train station. The main business was the transportation of baggage using horse and carriage.

1934

Entrance of Mr. Friedrich Wilhelm Rosebrock and Mr. Richard Sommer in the company. Innovative ideas were implemented by the new generation.

The General Cargo section was formed by Friedrich Wilhelm Rosebrock. Rosebrock became the official Railway Transporter with more than 40 vehicles dedicated for the railway traffic. The moving company located in Bremen was formed. Under the leadership of Richard Sommer Rosebrock developed to be an international worldwide moving company and neutral port agency.

1950

In the 50's Mr. Richard Sommer continued his international activities in the USA. Through its international network, Rosebrock became a significant provider of removal services, tailored to the needs of the US Soldiers and their families. Each year, Richard Sommer took an active part in the international conference of the HHGFA (Household Goods Forwarders Association of America). In the year 2009 he was inducted into the "Hall of Honor" in recognition of his outstanding services.

1962

Membership in the HHGFAA, since 2009 name change to IAM (International Association of Movers).

INTERNATIONAL REMOVALS

We are your removals company. With our highly skilled professionals we guarantee the smooth organization and execution of your international move.

With Rosebrock you benefit in multiple ways – We combine our experience as international movers with the independence of a neutral port agency. A combination which allows us to develop the optimal logistics for the overseas move which you have entrusted with us.

We mediate independently between the client, steamship company, authorities and worldwide partners. This ensures the usage of the best possible freight rates, i.e. moves to the U.S.A. or Latin America.

OFFICE MOVES – PROJECT MOVES

As a certified moving company together with our qualified staff and partners, we see to it that all of your employees can continue working after your move. We take care of the organization, generate the project plan, offer our packing- and unpacking service as well as the important check lists for your move.

Whether you are moving from one floor to another, within Bremen or clear across Germany, nothing should be left to chance with your office- and project move.

We can take care of your move on a weekend if you wish.
